

Property Profiles

Strengthen & Streamline Your Customer Support Program

When your customers need property information, they rely on you for a swift, thorough response. Instead of spending hours each week researching properties for clients, you can leverage our Property Profiles service to compile residential property and market details quickly with little time and effort.

Detailed Data from a Simple Name and Address Search

Data Trace creates an extensive profile of each property in response to a customer's request. These profiles include current ownership, sales and mortgage history, and detailed property characteristics. This includes square footage, improvements, street and parcel maps images, and demographics.

We compile the data from the best available sources and deliver it to your desktop within seconds in presentation-quality form.
